

Misch evous Theatre

INSPIRE: Writing for Performance

Five workshops, every Monday @ 7.30pm starting 14 November 2011
led by Clive Holland of Mischievous Theatre

A series of workshops to inspire, provoke and develop your imagination. Whether writing for the stage, screen, radio, for storytelling or other performance-related work, these workshops will help you to find your individual voice and tell your unique story.

The playful, creative sessions are intended to create an imaginative and fruitful atmosphere where serious, comedic, frivolous, factual, fictional or downright ridiculous writing can take place.

They will transform your ideas into something tangible, but if you haven't got an idea, will prise one out of you...stories are everywhere, we are surrounded by them, you probably have a million in your head already. So, whether you're an experienced writer or you've never written anything before, come along and we'll play, experiment and create.

Clive Holland has had over twenty plays produced and performed professionally with companies around the UK. Find out more at www.mischievoustheatre.co.uk.

Photo: Mark Solly

Workshops last 2 hrs each, starting at 7.30pm each Monday, at a different venue each week. Fee £12 per workshop or £50 for all five (paid in advance). You can do one or several.

First session at The Custom House, Harbour Parade, Ramsgate CT11 8LP. To book a place or to talk about taking part, contact Clive on 07971 223282 or via clive@mischievoustheatre.co.uk